BLOCK RECRUIT'S WHEEL OF PROSPERITY

Directions: The sections in the wheel represent the different aspects to be considered during your job search. Seeing the centre of the wheel as 1 and the outer edges as 10, rank the level of importance of each area to you by filling in the sections up to the correct number. To help us help you, analysing the areas which are of most importance will guide us and give us direction when it comes to assisting you in your search and putting forward positions which are a good fit for you in the next stage of your career.

THINKING BEYOND TOMORROW IN YOUR CAREER PATH – WORK SHEET

Part 1 – Making the most of your current situation

Goal Setting

Questions	Your Notes
What do you want to achieve in your career?
What are your short terms goals?
What are your long-term goals?
Request a one to one with your employer and discuss your goals with them.
Discuss how you would like to achieve these goals with them and align the business goals with yours.
If you want a promotion, ASK: What do I need to be demonstrating to you to be in line for a promotion? Explain you are willing to prove yourself and work hard to gain the promotion. Note: Before expecting or asking for a promotion, make sure you are excelling in your current role first!
Ask is there is a skillset you could train in that the company doesn't have at present and it would add value to them.
Seek out a mentor that can help you achieve these goals and hold you accountable for working towards them.
